CONTENTS

The main purpose of this publication is to identify and describe all of the traditional carillons in the world. But it also covers electrified carillons, chimes, rings, zvons & other instruments or collections of 8 or more conventional or tubular tower bells (even if not in a tower), and other significant tower bells.

The complete publication (online version) consists of, and the Terms of Use apply to, the following PDF files:

- Title & Contents (this page, reproduced in each file)
- Introduction - a complete guide to the display and interpretation of site, summary and other information.
- North America (carillons, traditional and non-traditional)
- North America (chimes, chimolas, rings and zvons)
(North America = The U.S.A., Canada and Mexico)
- Central and South America
- Africa and the Middle East
- Asia and the Pacific Rim
- Belgium
- British Isles (including Eire)
- Denmark and its dependencies
- France
- Germany (East and West united)
- Italy
- The Netherlands
- Europe and the North Atlantic (remaining countries)
- Order form for obtaining standard hardcopy

 *Remarks: Original bells cast in 1950; original keyboard had space for addition of 7 notes; 10-note chiming drum.
 Various repairs in 1977, 1982.
 Tower renamed in 1997, on centennial of the death of Andres Bonifacio.
 2007: After a silence of 18 years,
 this carillon was replaced with a new instrument; the old bells have been retired, but some may be re-used elsewhere. New keyboard appears to have space for addition of an octave of trebles.

 - Great Bells -

KYONGJU, Korea
 The National Museum holds a bell which was formerly in the temple of Pondok in this city. About 280 cm high and 227 cm diameter, it is estimated at 72000 kg, the third-heaviest soundable
 bell in the world.

KYOTO, Japan
 A bell of 63000 kg, cast in 1614, is in the Hoko-ji monastery. Another, cast in 1636, is at Chion-in, and is nearly the same weight; these were the largest cast in Japan before the 20th century.

MINGUM sull'Irravaddi, Burma
 (also called Mingoan or Mingun)
 A bell estimated at 90000 kg or at 88 tons; may be the largest soundable bell in the world. Cast in 1790, 366 cm high,

495cm diameter.

NANKING, China
 A bell of over 20 tons, 2m diameter, cast in 712 by order of the emperor
 Hsuan Tsang, and still extant, apparently of Korean workmanship.
 Another cast in 1389 by order of the first Ming Dynasty emperor, nearly 360 cm high and 240 cm diameter, weight over 20 metric tons; extant. (Three others, made about the same time, and presumably similar, have disappeared.)

OSAKA, Japan
 In the temple is a bell of 114000 kg cast in 1903.

PEKING (Beijing), China
 A bell of 56000 kg, cast in 1404 by Yao Kuang-hsiao, hangs in the Temple of the Great Bell.

PYONG-YANG, Korea
 In the city center is a bell of 10 tons cast in 1727.

RANGOON, Burma
 The bell "Maha Ganda" (Sweet Voice) was cast in 1791 for Shwe Dagon;
 weight estimated at 16 tons.
 Another bell, 42 tons, was cast 1840.

SEOUL, Korea
 Buksoo Palace grounds hold the Queen's Bell, cast in 1462, 250cm high and 172cm diameter.
 At Chong-ro, the ancient main central intersection in the city, is a temple bell cast in 1468, 280cm high,
 228cm diameter.

WELLINGTON, New Zealand
 The five basses of the War Memorial Carillon are as follows:
 D# 27000 lb (1995)
 F 8.2 ton (1995)
 F# 7 ton (1995)
 G 6 ton (1995)
 G# 11129 lb (1929, G&J)
 The four new basses were subcontracted by Whitechapel to Eijsbouts, and cast to G&J profiles using G&J decorations and bronze mix; the largest (at least) exceeded the capacity of Eijsbouts' furnaces and was cast at the NV Lips foundry for the casting of ships' propellers. It is the largest bell ever cast in the Netherlands.
