TERMS OF USE

The PDF files which constitute the online edition of this publication are subject to the following terms of use:

(1) Only the copy of each file which is resident on the TowerBells Website is sharable. That copy is subject to revision at any time without prior notice to anyone.

(2) A visitor to the TowerBells Website may download any of the available PDF files to that individual's personal computer via a Web browser solely for viewing and optionally for printing at most one copy of each page.

(3) A file copy so downloaded may not be further reproduced or distributed in any manner, except as incidental to the course of regularly scheduled backups of the disk on which it temporarily resides. In particular, it may not be subject to file sharing over a network.

(4) A print copy so made may not be further reproduced.

CONTENTS

The main purpose of this publication is to identify and describe all of the traditional carillons in the world. But it also covers electrified carillons, chimes, rings, zvons & other instruments or collections of 8 or more conventional or tubular tower bells (even if not in a tower), and other significant tower bells.

The complete publication (online version) consists of, and the Terms of Use apply to, the following PDF files:

- Title & Contents (this page, reproduced in each file)
- Introduction - a complete guide to the display and interpretation of site, summary and other information.
- North America (carillons, traditional and non-traditional)
- North America (chimes, chimolas, rings and zvons)
(North America = The U.S.A., Canada and Mexico)
- Central and South America
- Africa and the Middle East
- Asia and the Pacific Rim
- Belgium
- British Isles (including Eire)
- Denmark and its dependencies
- France
- Germany (East and West united)
- Italy
- The Netherlands
- Europe and the North Atlantic (remaining countries)
- Order form for obtaining standard hardcopy
- Survey forms for carillons, chimes and towers

 * Tower bell instruments in the *
 * geographic area of the *
 * British Isles (including Eire) *
 * are divided into four parts: *
 * *
 * Existing carillons (beginning *
 * on this page) *
 * Former carillons (i.e., defunct *
 * instruments which have not *
 * been replaced) *
 * Chimes (8 to 22 bells hung dead) *
 * Former chimes (as above) *
 * *
 * Within each part, sites are listed *
 * alphabetically by city. *
 * *
 * Rings are not listed except when *
 * part of, or at the same institution *
 * with, another listed instrument. *
 * *
 * At the end of this MIL are shown *
 * other sites of interest, including *
 * a list of great bells. *

NOTE: Sites for which the local government reorganization of 1974 specified a different name for the county-like administrative authority include both names, with the historic county name shown in parentheses. The reason for this is that the administrative names have frequently been used as if they were replacements for the historic names, though they are not. Presenting both names here insures that the reader will be able to make the proper connection with place references of all kinds. The historic county names are used for the two-letter abbreviations in the country field. Further changes in administrative names, resulting from the reorganization of 1995, are not yet included.

NOTE: Ordnance Survey (OS) map references are included under Location where known.

NOTE: In this region, chime semitones may be given either in chime scale (numbering from the bottom, as in "sharp 4th" or "flat 7th") or in ringing scale (numbering from the top, as in "#5" or "b2").

 Additional semitone of the chime - G# (sharp 4th). Hung above the ring of 14 in the opposite tower from "Great Peter" (216-2-22 in E flat).
 From 1473 to 1750, a chiming machine played tunes on the bells of the ring.
 The expansion from chime to carillon incorporated the bells of the former Loughborough mobile chime (see below), with some new bells.

BOSTON - 1 ENGLAND -LI
 *Location:
 St.Botolph Parish Church (Boston Stump)
 Boston, Lincolnshire, England
 OS Ref. TF 32 44
 *Remarks:
 Originally a chromatic series above an 8-bell ring; bells installed by Gillett & Bland, who also provided a chiming mechanism to play them; this was the first carillon in England.
 Carillon melted down in 1897 by G&J to make 4 quarter bells. (Hour strike remains on the tenor bell of the ring of 8, later expanded to 10; see -2 under Chimes.)

CATTISTOCK ENGLAND -DO
 *Location:
 Church of Sts. Peter & Paul
 Cattistock, Dorset, England
 OS Ref. SY 59 99
 *Remarks:
 Tower was designed for the carillon,
 and completed in 1876.
 First 33 bells were cast in 1872 by Severin van Aerschodt, Louvain, delivered in 1887 but not installed.
 Last two bells were cast in 1899 by Felix van Aerschodt, who also installed the carillon. Three octaves, including keyboard D# but not C# or F#; 8 basses hung for change-ringing.
 Destroyed by fire in September, 1940;
 scrap metal recast into a ring of 8
 by Mears, 1953.

NOTE: Rings are not listed for Britain, the 'Ringing Isle', except when known to have a tune-playing mechanism.
 See "A Bell-ringer's Guide to the Church Bells of Britain" by R.H.Dove (8th ed.,1994, published by Seven Corners Press Ltd., Woodbridge Meadows, Guildford, GU1 1BL) or online version of "Dove's Guide".
 That book also lists a large number of towers with bells hung "for chiming only;" some of those may become eligible for listing here when their exact mechanisms are determined. At present, the following pages include all chimes known to have baton claviers plus a sampling of those with other mechanisms or with tubular or hemispherical bells. For a complete list (including clock chimes), see Mike Chester's online list.

NOTE: The word 'carillon' is frequently used in Britain to mean any number of bells on which tunes are played automatically (as by a chime barrel), or the mechanism by which they are played.
